Maria Krehel

Senior National Executive Director ● ● ● ●

Maria Krehel made the decision to join BeautiControl for “something fun to do.” She told her husband it was a way to earn extra money to decorate their home. She held enough parties to pay back her investment and to have fun, but not enough to decorate!

That all changed when she attended one of BeautiControl's national conferences, Celebration. There, Maria caught a glimpse of what her future could hold if she worked the business in all three areas that BeautiControl teaches: book, sell and recruit. After that realization, her husband was transferred and they moved to a new town.

Maria continued to work a full-time job, but now she was commuting two hours a day and only earning $900 a month. She took a chance on herself and started booking more parties consistently in order to sell

“I'm so glad I did – I became a Director even with life happening.”

The life I love...

“BeutiControl is all about building relationships... and that’s one of the greatest things about this company – meeting new people and making wonderful friends everyday.”

$2,500 each month and recruit. That paid off when Maria realized she had enough Consultants on her team to begin her Director-in-Qualification to become a Director.

That same day, Maria found out they were expecting their first child! At first she questioned whether she should put her business on hold until life was not so complicated, but she decided to go for it. “I’m so glad I did – I became a Director even with life happening,” she says.

The following year, they got more exciting news — twins were on the way, and with that, more news — her husband was being transferred again. Because BeutiControl is a business that offers flexibility and control over one’s future, Maria was able to work around these changes. With “life happening” again, she became an Executive Director while working from her bed awaiting the arrival of the twins with an 18-month-old baby and a move!

Maria has learned so much from BeutiControl, from her sister Consultants and her peers — lessons that are so valuable in life. “BeutiControl is all about building relationships... and that’s one of the greatest things about this company – meeting new people and making wonderful friends everyday.”

Maria thanks BeutiControl for giving her a glimpse of her future during Celebration. Today, she is living her dream life. She earns an annual six-figure income, lives in the home she and her husband dreamed of having together and spends time with her three boys!

Maria has been driving a luxury automobile for over 16 years. Today, she drives a Mercedes S550® and has earned every trip available since joining BeutiControl, traveling to more than 20 destinations all over the world. “But the best part of living my dream is knowing that others can have it too! My advice for anyone wanting to live their dreams is to attend Celebration — you’ll get to see all that BeutiControl can offer you. It’s the best decision for your future!”

heart & soul

I have accomplished all of my success through Jesus Christ. I believe all things come through him. I also want to thank my Director, Senior National Executive Director Betty Hughes. She is so patient and kind – I have learned so much through her! To my husband, you always know how to help me overcome obstacles and restore a sense of calm. Thank you for being so supportive!
